PGA TOUR, PGA TOUR Wives Association to host second annual barbecue for wounded soldiers

Event to take place at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, July 1

WASHINGTON, D.C.

June 23, 2009

The PGA TOUR and the PGA TOUR Wives Association will host a barbecue for wounded soldiers residing at Mologne House on the campus of Walter Reed Army Medical Center and their families on Wednesday, July 1, from 6-9 p.m., as part of PGA TOUR Charities' Birdies for the Brave military outreach program (www.PGATOUR.COM/birdiesforthebrave).

Mologne House is located at 6900 Georgia Avenue NW in Washington, D.C.

TOUR players who are in town for the AT&T National and their families are scheduled to take part. Activities at the family barbecue will include music, golf lessons, golf skills contests and games, along with children's activities such as face painting, magicians and crafts. Guests will also have the opportunity to meet and get autographs from PGA TOUR players.

New this year is the addition of PaintFest, whose mission is to bring comfort and hope through art to people in healthcare facilities around the world. The vision is to create art with patients and volunteers to help make healthcare facilities beautiful places for healing. Through the inclusion of PaintFest, the veterans, families and PGA TOUR players and their families will come together to create a beautiful work of art to hang in Mologne House for the enjoyment of all. For more information on PaintFest, please visit www.hospitalart.org.

The event will help kick off a series of Birdies for the Brave fundraising events at 26 clubs in the TPC Network as well as Heritage Golf Group clubs nationwide. Since 2005, PGA TOUR Charities, Inc., in conjunction with PGA TOUR players, TPC members, corporate partners and fans, has raised $3.5 million for military homefront groups.
