BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

The PGA TOUR Wives Association has supported Target House since its inception, funding the playground at the home-away-from-home for St. Jude patients and their families. The PGA TOUR Wives Association picnic has become an annual event during the Stanford St. Jude Championship every summer, with the Association donating $229,000 to Target House over the last 10 years.

PGA TOUR Wives Association, Inc. is a Florida not-for-profit corporation organized to render support and provide assistance to needy children and their families through the means of charitable events. Incorporated in 1988 by wives of professional golfers on the PGA TOUR, the Association raises money for child-related charities and enhances the game of golf through time and monetary contributions to those organizations. In addition to fundraising, members perform a myriad of service projects ranging from cooking in soup kitchens to playing with hospitalized children in communities where tournaments are held.
